Findings/Comments Here to conduct technical assistance on playground areas & fences per request of the facility.

CCFI arrived at the facility and observed that playground fences have been removed.

There is a new wood paneling privacy fence that lines the outside of the playground, this was paid for and installed by the facility.

Child Care Licensure was not made aware of the playground fences being removed and renovated. A Plan of Action for the playground renovations was not submitted to Child Care Licensure.

Per Director the new fences will arrive and be ready for install in two weeks, if there is no delays.

A Plan of Action must be submitted to CCFI by 5:00 PM on Friday, July 14th. This Plan of Action must include all plans for the playground.

Children cannot be on the playground for any reason, until fences have been completed and inspected by CCFI. If CCFI has not heard from facility by August 1st, CCFI will contact facility.
