Findings/Comments Upon arrival the licensing officials met Mrs. Humphrey

The purpose of today's visit was announced

During the walk through of the facility the following were observed:

Based on observation all applications for staff and children are under the Boy and Girl Club. Documentation in the children files shows that the Salvation Army afterschool is no longer operating.

The licensing officials spoke with Major Robert Lyle the Corps Officer concerning the facility license. After the Branch Director and C.O. discussed the operation of the facility, the child care director Dr. Allgood was called for input.

Observation of facility: The Boys and Girl Club is operating under the Salvation Army license. The major requested a meeting with child care staff concerning the facility license.

A meeting will be scheduled with Dr. Allgood
